UNION GAME NIGHT

These days it's not too hard to find someone with their face awash in the white glow of some little screen displaying the latest technological wonder, so here at Labor 411 we decided it's time for a refresher course in human interaction. For Union Game Night we bring you all the classics, which by the way make great gifts for the holidays, and a few snack suggestions from the most comprehensive directory in the nation. Bring family and friends together for a night of good 'ol fashioned fun, union style!

Note: Hasbro is the only major games manufacturer that still produces some of their products in the U.S. Although some game components, such as dice, are made outside the U.S., the company provides good jobs to 350 members of RWDSU/UFCW Local 224 who make and assemble select Hasbro products. The company very clearly states on its packaging where all parts are made, so check the box of your favorite Hasbro games—if it says Made in the USA you can be sure your purchase is helping to support union workers.
